Community Hospital Corporation (CHC) is proud to announce the winner of the 2015 President's Leadership Excellence Award. Amie Marcum serves as Administrative Assistant/Human Resource Coordinator for ContinueCARE Hospital at Baptist Health Corbin, Corbin, Kentucky. She is recognized as a motivating leader who possesses relationship-building skills and a contagious passion for improving health care in the community.

"It is my pleasure to present the President's Leadership Excellence Award to Amie," said Michael D. Williams, CHC president and CEO. "Her leadership and expertise help to create a better place for staff and patients of ContinueCARE Hospital at Baptist Health Corbin."

Marcum joined ContinueCARE Hospital at Baptist Health Corbin in April of 2014. Although she did not have a healthcare, hospital or Human Resources background, she is a quick learner and adapts readily. Alan Coppock, CEO of the hospital, says, "Amie helps to bring clarity to complicated duties and processes, helping everyone to focus on achieving the best outcome." He cited her ability to master Google Drive and applications, electronic HR onboarding, to name a few. When it comes to relationships, whether they involve physicians, patients, family or staff, she communicates in a gentle yet effective ways, he adds.

Further, Marcum serves as a resource for her colleagues, often making complicated systems and processes an easier part of daily work for everyone. Coppock describes her as always positive, a tremendous benefit to our team, friendly and customer-service oriented. "We appreciate that she always looks for the blue sky."

Williams will recognize Marcum and present her with a Waterford crystal bowl, $500 gift card, and a framed certificate of appreciation at the Corbin hospital on August 24, 2015.

About ContinueCARE Hospital at Baptist Health Corbin
