

David Garcia

Director of Revenue Cycle

David Garcia serves as Director of Revenue Cycle where he works closely with CHC customers to increase financial performance by reviewing and optimizing processes while identifying new revenue-generating opportunities.

David comes to CHC from Nearterm Revenue Cycle Group, where was a Senior Revenue Cycle Consultant and responsible for restructuring and reorganizing revenue cycle for several of the SUNY Downstate Medical Centers in Brooklyn, New York, while providing other services. Prior to that role, David was the Central Business Office Director for Memorial Health Systems of East Texas for 10 years. He also worked at The Methodist Hospital in Houston as the Central Business Office and Government Patient Accounting Manager, as well as in patient accounting for several other healthcare organizations.

David completed courses in accounting at Durham Business College, located in Austin, Texas, and is a member of the Healthcare Financial Management Association.

