

Michael Carpio

Director of Human Resource Information Systems

Michael Carpio is Director of Human Resource Information Systems (HRIS). In this role he is responsible for the strategic direction of HR technologies, including the design, operations, support, integration, and reporting for CHC and its owned and leased hospitals.

Michael has more than 10 years of experience in human resources system management roles – both domestic and global – where he developed HRIS implementation strategies. His expertise includes providing leadership while working closely with business partners to ensure that requirements are met. Most recently, as HRIS Manager at Austin Industries, Michael was responsible for analytical and technical support for their entire HRIS, which encompassed four companies with 7,000+ employees.

Michael received a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas and earned a Public Relations/Communications Certificate from The Washington Center in Washington, D.C.
